Home School Community Liaison Policy

Introductory statement

This policy was developed to give guidance to the staff, parents and local community on the role of the Home School Community Liaison Teacher

Rationale

The Home School Liaison Scheme (HSCL) is targeted at students who are at risk of not reaching their full potential in the education system due to economic or social disadvantage. This policy was developed to inform staff and parents of the roles and duties on the HSCL.

What is a HSCL?

The HSCL Coordinator (a teacher from the school) works in partnership with parents, teachers and local community organisations to support positive educational outcomes for pupils/ students.

The HSCL Coordinator also works closely with the other two strands of TESS, Educational Welfare Officers (EWO) and the personnel from the School Completion Programme to improve educational outcomes for children. As part of their work, the HSCL will meet parents during home visits, at courses for parents in the school and at other school and community events.

Principal: Ms. Maura Gray

Deputy Principal: Ms. Ciara Howard

Goals

• To maximize active participation of students in the learning process, in particular those who might be at risk of failure.

• To promote active cooperation between home, school and relevant community agencies in promoting the educational interests of the students.

• To raise awareness in parents / guardians of their own capacities to enhance their children's education process and to assist them in developing relevant skills.

• To enhance the students' participation, their retention in the educational system, their continuation to third level education and their lifelong attitude to learning.

• To develop a caring, open environment where information and guidance are provided and shared among the whole school community.

1. Introduction

Through the Home School Community Liaison Scheme it is hoped that children will engage fully in all aspects of education. They will attend regularly and remain in school. This is achieved through developing partnerships between school and home, parents/guardians and teachers. The scheme focuses directly on the relevant adults in the students' educational lives and seeks indirect benefits for the students themselves; that is, to develop parents / guardians as educators.

• The partnership of parents/guardians and teachers collaborating in the education and welfare of their students

• The scheme is unified and integrated at both primary and secondary levels

• The approach of the Home School Community Liaison Scheme is preventative rather than curative • The focus of the Home School Community Liaison scheme is on the adults whose attitudes and behaviours affect the lives of children, namely, parents /guardians and teachers

• The basis of activities in the scheme is the identification of needs and having those needs met

• The Home School Community Liaison Scheme develops teacher and school staff attitudes in the areas of partnership and the whole-school approach

• The Home School Community Liaison Scheme promotes the fostering of self-help and independence

· Home visitation is a crucial element in establishing bonds of trust with families

• Networking with and promoting the coordination of the work of voluntary and statutory agencies increases effectiveness, obviates duplication and leads to an integrated delivery of service to marginalized children and their families.

Home Visitation:

• Home visitation is at the heart of the HSCL scheme's focus on partnership. The ultimate purpose is to maximize the student's involvement and their retention in the education system.

• Through home visits the coordinator endeavours to extend the welcoming and friendly face of the school in the context and circumstances of daily life.

• The HSCL coordinator aims to be friendly and non-judgemental in his/her approach while carrying out home visits.

• Teachers who express concerns and would like a home visit to a particular family, may refer to the HSCL coordinator.

• Home visits will not be made in the case of issues directly relating to student discipline or where the personal safety of the HSCL is deemed to be at risk.
